“ Losing someone that was truly loved is difficult. The Bible comforts us @ Ecclesiastes 3:11-Even time indefinite he has put in their heart.

TA

My name is Tara; I don't have a memory of Mrs. Florence, because I have never met her before. I wanted to mention that even though I'm a stranger I've still experienced the grief, hurt, pain, and anger that the enemy death have left me with. I just wanted to take some time to express my deepest sympathy to the family. I know there's nothing I can say or do to take the hurt and pain away at a heartfelt time such as this, but hopefully these scriptures from the Bible will bring you some comfort. Psalms 55:22 tells us to "Throw our burden upon God himself, And he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to totter." The faithful man Job asked a question in Job 14:14 that many of us have asked ourselves "If a man die shall he live again" you will be pleased to know that the Bible makes the promise in Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine—they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth]." In the near future the Revelation 21:3, 4 will be fulfilled which says "With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning or outcry nor is pain anymore. The former things have passed away." I hope these scriptures brought a little ease to your pain just remember to continue to have faith and as brought out in James 4:8 Draw close to God and he will draw close to you.
