“ Parents and family of Frank Costley III. Losing a child is the most painful experience a parent can have. And losing a young person is especially painful. The Creator did not intend such. But he purposes to right matters by doing away with death The Bible promises this at Revelation 21: 3,4. It also promises a resurrection Acts 24:15 We can rely on the Bible. It says God cannot lie Titus 1:2 I hope those thoughts are encouraging.##imported-begin##Lena Bey##imported-end##

“ Hello Big Brother, this is your one and only little sister. This is a bad way to be writing this but this is how it happens. I know you really did not know each other but that is ok, because God is with you now and you see me. I am a little angry that your wife did not find your birth mother to let you know but God will handle that. But you know that it will be ok, and to let your wife know that your MOTHER name is Phyllis Smith birth mother and she lives in D.C., and she needs to come and I will leave that alone. I LOVE YOU BIG BROTHER. ##imported-begin##shakesha belt-robb##imported-end##

“ Frank you will be greatly missed although we don't understand why. It is never for us to question why God takes loved ones from us. As long as we all know that it is for the best we all will be able to move on. ##imported-begin##Jobina Smith##imported-end##

“ You know how much you are loved, you are the adopted niece and cousin in this family and we will do almost anything for you, we cannot take the pain and suffering for you but we gladly share it. This is being done with the love God has commanded us to give to all his children in His name. You know to call if you need anything even if it's just a listening ear. “ Sorry to hear about the death of your wife. No doubt she was loved and dear to you. God feels love for us also and he showed that love by providing a wonderful hope for humanity. John 3:16 states, “For God loved the world so much that he gave his only begotten son that those who exercise faith in him not be destroyed but have everlasting life. Just think of it. God took the initiative to open a door of hope to us long before we came to know him. For those that have fallen asleep in death he plans to resurrect these to life again. John 5:28,29 Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Paul stated at Acts 24:15 that there will be a resurrection of righteous and unrighteous. This assurance give hope to all especially those who have fallen asleep in death. Until such a time as then take comfort in knowing that our heavenly father love us and is there if we should ever need anything especially when we are pained. Psalm 34:18 Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. Psalm 29:11- Jehovah himself will give strength indeed to his people. Jehovah will bless his people with peace. May you be a recipient of his peace in your time of loss.”
