“ I will forever remember Fred as an immaculate dresser, looking as though he'd just stepped out of a GQ Magazine. He was always affable and knowledgeable. Never for a moment was he at a loss of words. He wore a perpetual smile that isn't easy to forget. He had and expressed the light from the love of God. I am grateful that Fred Richardson and I crossed paths as colleagues at what was then, Hart Junior High School. He will be missed!##imported-begin##Ms. Lee E. Epps##imported-end##

“ *Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;*

--Alfred Lord Tennyson

Fred, a Social Studies teacher and I an English teacher had great fun working at Hart Middle School then Junior High School when Fred was there. Fred could quote verses so eloquently, especially when he was outnumbered by females. In the midst of it all, he was not intimidated and could hold his own. I can almost hear him quoting the above verses. He was so well versed. We appreciated the humor, the jokes, the good home cooking, the helping hand, especially with the problem boys, and most of all, the gentlemanly spirit that he possessed. He will long be remembered as one who blazed the way for those who come behind. He has passed on the baton, I only hope that he that receives can run the race and run it well.

Thank you Fred.

You have fought a good fight. You have kept the faith, you have finished the course. There is laid up for you a crown of righteousness.

Farewell and God bless,
