

French Edward Thompson

May 3, 1943 - May 17, 2020

French E. Thompson, age 76, died peacefully at United Medical Center in Washington DC, on Sunday May 17th, 2020.

French, the baby boy of Hazel Campbell and James Thompson born on May 3rd, 1944 in Washington, DC.

He graduated from Theodore Roosevelt High School in 1962 where he met and started the singing sensations Hot Tamales. Soon later he moved to New York to follow his passion leading him to join the band Cane and Able and met his first love Sally Wray. The gift of that union brought his precious daughter Tammy. His love for music being the driving force behind his pursuit French found his greatest joy after joining the legendary group The Platters which settled him in Rome Italy the year of 1981. Desiring to be closer to his family he moved back to the states with his beloved sister Mildred and later settled in at Serenity Nursing Home in Washington DC.

He leaves to mourn 3 beautiful sisters, Cleonis Washington, Marion Joyner and Mildred Smith. His daughter Tamela Davis, 4 grandchildren Candice Haynes, Dorothy Hatcher, Aaron and Mariah Davis and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, family and friends. Preceded in death by his parents Hazel and James and grandson Maurice Davis.

“ Thinking of you all.

While words fail to capture the pain of losing a love one, God sees everything. He hears the groans of the oppressed and revives the hearts of the crushed. May God sustain you at this time of great loss.
