“ My deepest sympathies to the Vinson family. From time to time I would see, the man I knew as Vinson, around town and we always shared a couple of words. I'm honored that I had the chance to hang out with him, earlier this month, at a special event. He will be missed.##imported-begin##Narvel Gaddis, Jr.##imported-end##

“ To Lucy and Fulton’s Children, Grand, and the two Great-Grand;
We realize nothing we say can take away the pain of your grief, but remember, “To Live in the hearts we leave behind is Not to die”.

Dear Cecile, Helen, Annie, & Troy Wendell Because God does everything perfect, He blessed the union of the late Wade and Louise Vinson with a beautiful spiritually grounded family. And because of their Prayers, their Faith, and their strong sense of family, even during these darkest hours they would want you to keep God first and draw strength from one another.

*Your brother Fulton will be missed. You have our deepest sympathy.
More than words, gifts or flowers, sympathy is standing along side someone and sharing their burden; we boldly accept that position, and want you to know - you’re not alone and that you are in our prayers.*

“ *Ms. Lucy and Family,
Please know that GOD makes no mistakes. Stay strong in your faith and trust in GOD and he will keep you in these trying times. I have known Fulton all my life. I was truly saddened when my Dad gave me the news of his passing. I have fond memories as a child of him and my parents having fun times together at our home. He was the laugh of the party.
