“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy at your loss. No doubt Gail Jackson will be missed by many of lives whom she touch during her life. As difficult a time it may be a present take comfort in knowing that our heavenly father can be a source of strength in times such as this. His word states at Psalm 34:18 which says Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. Another Psalm states that he can become a fortress during times of distress. Psalm 37:39 b-part Jesus provided assurance that death will not continue to be the victor forever and His heavenly father has made provision to undue the damage death causes even providing our love ones with a resurrection to life again if we have faith. Not only did Jesus speak of such a hope but he provided assurance by his demonstrating in on many occassions while here on earth as in the case of Lazarus John: 11, John 5:28,29. When you find a moment why not read these passages which have brought many hope and comfort. I am sure that along with the support of family and friends you and your family can endure. Soon death along with many of other pains will be done away with. Revelation 21: 3,4 Sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Garrick's Messages##imported-end##

“ Kesha-
The last time I saw Mrs. Gail was @ Trina's bridal shower. She was in such high spirits. Although we're all saddened by this, let's take comfort in knowing that her purpose here has been served & she's gone to Glory to rest with the other angels.

I miss her dearly. She was such a sweet person. I liked to make her laugh :O

Take it easy & call me if you need anything...##imported-begin##La'Toya D. Putman##imported-end##
