

Garland P. Coleman

July 16, 1928 - October 27, 2007

Garland P. Coleman of Hyattsville, Maryland departed this life on Saturday, October 27, 2007.

He was the beloved husband of Etta W. Coleman, loving father of Garland P. Coleman Diane and Theresa Austin Michael. Also survived by 2 grand children Latoya, Michael Austin, a great-grandchild David J., 3 sisters-in-law, 5 brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

To send condolences or a lasting tribute to the Coleman family, please sign the online guestbook. Click "Sign Guestbook".

Tribute Wall

“ Garland P. Coleman

October 23, 2023 at 08:15 AM

“ Garland

My deepest sympathy to you and your family.##imported-begin##Billye##imported-end##

November 05, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Garland & The Coleman Family. I extend my heartfelt sympathy and prayers. May God put comfort on your hearts.##imported-begin##Donna D. Doy##imported-end##

November 02, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Garland, I am so sorry to hear about your father. I feel what you are going through, because we just buried my grandson on October 15th.

Just know that I am praying for you and your family. Just know that if your father died in Christ, he is now with Christ and because He lives your father also lives.

May God Bless and Keep You And Your Family In This Time Of Sorrows.##imported-begin##Rosa E. Swinton##imported-end##

November 02, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Garland, please know that my thoughts are with you. I feel as though we connected this summer with our similar situations. Please extend my sympathies to your family.##imported-begin##Carol Lane##imported-end##

November 02, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Hello Family,

At a time like this, we are at a loss for words to express our condolence to someone who has lost a loved one. How to say it to bring comfort? How to say that we care? How to say that we understand?

Aunt Etta

It will be the little things about Uncle Geep that you will remember, the quiet moments watching his shoot'em up western movies, football games, basketball games, his smile and his laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again.

With Loving Memories

from Latonia Williams & family##imported-begin##Latonia Williams##imported-end##

November 02, 2007 at 12:00 AM