“ Who Alone But Christ

It is in our times and deepest need that we find the depths to which the tenderness and grace of Christ can reach.

Who Alone But Christ can bring us comfort and assurance with His all-embracing love.

Who Alone but Christ can understand our sorrow and wipe away our tears.

Who Alone but Christ can walk us through the darkness and bring us into the light of a new Dawn.

Who Alone but Christ can give us hope and the certainty that one day we will understand more clearly the things that are mysteries to us now?

To the family,

We will surely miss ?Mr. George? as we knew him. Not only was he was a great companion and dear friend to my mother, Florine Jones, he had become apart of the family to us. However, we can rejoice in knowing that he is resting in a better place. We loved him but we realize that the Lord loved him more and now He is completely healed.

Sincerely and with deepest sympathy: Mark, Felicia, David and Joshua Thompson of Salisbury, Maryland##imported-begin##Felicia Thompson##imported-end##
