“ *Dear Davis family,
I met Otis on my visits to Weschlers. Over the years we would engage in conversations and laugh. Half of the entertainment of going on preview day was to listen to Otis and Mark Weschler banter back and forth like grandfather and sassy grandson. Otis always greeted me with his huge charming smile and a hearty "hello, dear"
I always got the feeling of total devotion that he emanated - to Mrs Davis most of all, to his family, to the Weschler family and to his customers.
I am so happy and privileged to have been acquainted with such a wonderful gentleman and I will miss seeing his smiley face at every auction.
May your sadness of loss soon be replaced with knowing smiles and the fondest and funniest of memories. Otis was a dear dear man.*

“ My earliest memory of Mr. Davis was him as our neighbor over the fence with the most beautiful German Shepherds. I remember when George was born. My parents and the Davis' were friends and neighbors for many, many years after I left home. He was always so pleasant and just a nice man. He will be missed...

Prayers are with the family and those closest to Mr. Davis.
