“ Kim and Margie,

Thinking about you and the loss you have incurred. We all know that George has gone to that BETTER PLACE but we also know that there is still the pain felt in the loss of his presence in this world. Keep strong knowing that you are blessed with friendships.##imported-begin##Alfreda Cohill##imported-end##

“ God has called one of my favorite people home to his rest. My heart was broken, and I needed the comfort only God could give. So I prayed for comfort and God reminded me that Georgie hasn't seen his mom, my Aunt Edie, in 30 years. So, since I know what it is like to miss your mom, I said, go in peace and say hi to my mom for me. Jeffrey reminded me of what David said after the death of his infant son he fathered with Bathsheba, He cannot come to me, but I can go to him. So George, I would not be so selfish as to ask you to come back to this world of trouble, but in God's good time, I will come to you. Rest from your labors. I will miss you much, but soon and very soon....

Love always,

Jeannette

“ Terry and Kimberly:

May the Peace that only the Lord can give be with you at this time. I had a Thanksgiving diner a couple of years ago and George came along with Terry and a lot of the cousins, our two aunts and my Dad. I am thankful that i have that memory of better times with a lot of the family together again. I know that you have many memories of good times also, keep these in your heart and may they uplift your spirit.##imported-begin##Cynthia Brown##imported-end##

“ Terry and Kimberly, George your brother, your dad, was a father, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend he will never be replaced. I looked forward to his visits he used to visit and would go to church with me. one particular time he visited we went to Alpha Baptist Church, one of us fell into deep meditation. After church we laughed trying to decide who was snoring. We went back to my house and we had his famous salmon cakes. I hope he knows how much I loved him. He could always make me laugh whatever the situation he always had my back and was a great mentor. He and Marjorie always had my back. ##imported-begin## Jeffrey M Voorhees & Family ##imported-end##
