“ *To Ronald Gene and the entire Holley family:
Please accept my sincere condolences on the passing of George Holley. I have known George Holley for more than 20 years. George was always kind, and always a true gentleman, but still a man's man, who loved sports, music, and horse racing. I will miss him greatly, especially when Kentucky Derby season comes around. George Holley was a man with a lot of class, who treated everyone with courtesy and respect. Rest in Peace, my good friend.*
