*Uncle George was always there for you. He was like the Postman. The mail always gets through Uncle George was like that. He never forgot important days which meant a lot to people he knew. He was always sending e-cards. It was joy to open your computer and find an e-card from him. What joy he brought in our lives. He loved his spirit drinks and was a good conversationalist and always good for a party. I remember the time we met in DC. I was meeting a friend from overseas and we all hung out and had a lovely time. The mini bar he empty in our Hotel. He's at peace and parting with all above. Love you Uncle George DC won't be the same. Your memories will never die.
