“ I just learned my friend Gerri passed away. My heart aches for her family and friends. I worked with her at the USIA and DOS. She was always such a fun loving person who was full of life and always happy. We will meet again my friend, but not yet.

“ I worked with Geraldine at the Foreign Press Center for many years. When she started working there we were part of the US Information Agency and morphed into the State Department in 1999. We did a few trips together to help the foreign journalists who were stationed in the National Press Building. We had many wonderful memories and worked not as colleagues, but more like an extended family. One of my favorite memories of Geraldine was that at Halloween, I would get some candy corn and cram them onto my front teeth to give me a hideous, colorful smile. I would wait till she was on a non business phone call and go up to her and smile! It cracked her up with that infectious laugh and we had a good time. I did it for years. Rest in peace Geraldine, you will be missed for sure, but we know you are well taken care of!

“ Aunt Geri left big lipstick kisses on your face as proof of her love. Everyone knows she made the best Mac and cheese, hands down. However, what I remember most was her gentle kindness and her infectious laugh that all of her children inherited. Love you all and deeply wish I was there.
