“ Although I didn't know who she was, or that I knew her family, I met her at the skilled nursing facility where my singing group ministered annually. I recall a woman with a big beautiful smile sitting in the front row, eager to hear us sing.

“ Gerry Lee was the best friend anyone could have...and she was mine for 41 years. I will miss her more than I can imagine but I have the 41 years of memories to keep me going. Thank you for being my buddy, my BFF, and my son's Godmother.
