I am truly heartbroken by my brother's transition from this life into the next. He was a great inspiration to me in many areas of my life and he was THE major influence on my appreciation of music. Gil introduced me to all of the musical greats such as, Duke Ellington, Ella Fitzgerald, Carmen McCray, Sarah Vaughn, Miles Davis, Thelonious Monk, Ramsey Lewis, Ahmad Jamal, Barbara Streisand, Frank Sinatra, Cannonball and Herb Adderley, Modern Jazz Quartet, Cal Tjader, Sergio Mendez and many, many more. But his favorite artist above all, was John Coltrane and he absolutely loved his version of Rogers and Hammerstein's classic, My Favorite Things all of his life.

To my big brother, my hero, I submit this recording of your favorite song in loving memory of you. I will miss you greatly Gil. Till next we meet.....Praise Ye Yah!

“ Wishing you peace and comfort during this difficult time. Please know you are in my thoughts and in my heart.

I hope it brings you comfort to know that I am celebrating the life Gil, Dr. Hoffman, lived and am thankful for his impact on many lives in the District of Columbia School System and Israel Baptist Church.

“ I had the distinct pleasure of meeting "Uncle Hoffman" as I always called him in 1979 since that time he has always had a smile on his face, a kind word and when Aunt Connie was alive a smart comeback for her. He showed me how to be a parent and love my children which he did to the utmost and with ease. I will miss him and his love for his immediate and extended family and his warmth to anyone who entered his home. He left behind four beautiful children Gilbert, Phillip, Julie and Paul who I want to tell that if you ever need anything you can call on me. Lisa Hamilton
