“ I know you don't know me, but I saw Ms. Gilliam's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.

As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.' Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, "Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise." Jesus statement meant that "All the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!

1 Thessalonians 4:13 Paul instructs us to not be ignorant concerning those who are sleep (in death); This hope Paul mentions is the hope for the restored Paradise on Earth, as Jehovah God had originally created for all of mankind to enjoy.

“ To the Gilliam Family: I am a neighbor of yours who read about the loss in your family and I am deeply sorry, I know that the loss of a loved one can sometimes seem unbearable, I would love to share a scripture found in Gods Word the bible to help your household to cope, found at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 which reads: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God. My sincere condolences.

“ John and Tracy, may you find comfort in recalling precious moments you spend with Gladys. May you both receive strength through prayer to Jehovah God. May you both feel comforted by the loving concern of true companions. And may you both be uplifted by the Bible account found at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4: " the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation."
