“ Gladys Robinson, A Mighty Woman of God and worker in the vineyard. Aunt Gladys I know you didn't hear from me often. But whenever we seen each other whether it be in the store or in either of our churches. You always let me know that you and Uncle Herbert loved me and was proud of me. You knew how proud I was of my fly sweet little Auntie. I use to bragg about how you made your hats and clothes and how awesome you were. Aunt Gladys I know you are with Jesus and God The Father now and has been added to His heavenly angel choir. You just changed homes from being a loving angel here to being one there. So rest my Darling Aunt, I won't cry, for joy you were and joy you will always be to me. You will surely be missed. Your smile, kind words and just being who you are.

“ TRIBUTE TO Gladys

*Annie's waiting at the big door to say Hello to you once more!
She'll tell you how proud all of us are of the kind things you'd done so far.
Like moving on down to Big DC,
but always returning to "family".
So often you'd come to check on us all hoping to see everyone still standing tall.
A favorite "auntie" you turned out to be,
and surely a friend to in-laws like me!
Brothers and sisters were always your "toys"
- bragging on them was also your joy!
But the most precious and lasting you did of all was your willingness to heed God's heavenly call.
Your work in the vineyard long and hard was the thing you most enjoyed!
Your last days on Earth were no doubt your best
as you suffered, submitted and passed your final test.
Into His loving arms through that door you did go through the experience we must all come to know!
Now you leave us behind trying to learn how to get to you Please Dear Gladys ask God to give us a clue!! Maybe through you!
Fondly remembering you always!
Yvonne, for Myra, Steven, and Eric###imported-begin###yvonne
