

Glenn A. Taylor

July 23, 1976 - November 2, 2007

Glenn A. Taylor of Greenbelt, Maryland departed this life on November 2, 2007.

To send condolences or a lasting tribute to the Taylor family, please sign the online guestbook. Click "Sign Guestbook".

Tribute Wall

“ Glenn A. Taylor

October 23, 2023 at 08:15 AM

“ First and foremost, condolences to the family and true friends that lost a beautiful person. After everything is said and done, it's still hard to grasp the fact that I won't physically see you again in this lifetime. Doogie was a lot of things but what I'll most remember about him is trying to please everybody. He used to carry the weight of everyone else on his shoulders. He was a good friend and at times a pain u know where, but he was him and that never changed. Goodnight ol' friend. No more pains, or worries or struggles, the storm has passed for you, now you may rest your soul in peace. I leave you with what you always left me and everyone else with... luv you shawty!###imported-begin###Nay Crockett###imported-end##

November 19, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ To Glenn Sr., Chey and Nicole, My hearts goes out to you all in the lost of your son and brother.

I was so sadden by what had happen, I pray to God above that he will be there with you all to comfort your hearts and give you a peace of mind. Family is all you have, I pray that you all get closer together, stay in contact often with each other and see about each other.

God can wipe away all your tears, just trust and believe- For the Bibles says -The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer, my God, my strength and him I will trust. Psalms 18:2

Chey call Nicole when you need to talk

God bless##imported-begin##Carla##imported-end##

November 16, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ To the Taylor family my heart goes out to you in the lost of your love one.he's like my son

I'll always remember that "Doogie Smile" he had. Doogie, I'll always Love You and will miss you deeply. So to Glenn I, Chey, Glenn III and to all the family, just remember "Life Has No Sorrow, That Heaven Cannot Heal". I love you all and God Bless

You.##imported-begin##June C. Jackson##imported-end##

November 14, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ To the family of Glenn A. Taylor,II.
I know you miss Glenn and I do to.
I've known him for a short time and miss him so much. I will always remember the good times. Life has no sorrows that Heaven cannot heal. So, in those quiet times and places think of Glenn and read Psalms 23rd. I love you all.

"Kathy"##imported-begin##Kathleen Oliver##imported-end##

November 14, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ I would like to extend my sincere condolences to the Taylor Family. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away your loved one. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. That pain is not necessarily erased by being told that your loved one is up in heaven. The Bible, however, holds out a much different hope. It is God's desire and promise that you see Glenn again in the near future, not in an unknown heaven but right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions where pain, sickness and death will be no more. Please read these promises at John 5;28,29; Psalms 37;29; and Rev. 21;3,4. No doubt your heart yearns to see Glenn again. It would be my pleasure to assist you in learning how you can make this sure hope your very own. Feel free to contact me. Take care,##imported-begin##Roxanne##imported-end##

November 13, 2007 at 12:00 AM