“My deepest condolences to the family. She left a void in my life that will be everlasting. She was the sister I never had, my confidant for 53 years through teens ~ marriage ~children~divorce~deaths~good and bad times; godmother to several of my children. She was that one person I trusted with my all as she did me. I thank Allah for allowing us to travel this journey of life as we did and the love He placed in us for each other. Sister, you did above and beyond. To coin your favorite phrase “It is What it is”.
