Gloria Jean Ellis, the oldest daughter of Clarissa and Roy Yarborough, was born in Fort Meade, Florida, on April 18, 1945. She departed this life on October 4, 2024.

Gloria and her family later relocated to Washington D.C. where she attended public schools and graduated from Spingarn High School. After high school Gloria gained employment with the federal government under OPM.

Gloria loved driving, watching movies, and shopping. She became very close to her neighbor, Mrs. Kirby, whom she affectionately referred to as her adopted godmother. “ My condolences to the Ellis and Yarborough Family.

My sisters and I met Gloria about 25 years ago through my mom and she immediately was accepted into our family as a family member.

When she moved away from NC the family lost contact with her but we continue looking for Gloria.

we thought about looking through the obituary, but we said oh no!

She stayed on our mind and she was mentioned again on 2-22-25 at the family breakfast. With the help of the Lord my niece Kendra found her obituary this morning 2-27-25, heartbreaking to the family.
