“ Just thinking of you mom. I miss you soo much. I miss out inspirational connection. You inspired me with your words of wisdom. The Lord was always there for you and it showed. You prayed for me constantly and He showed up and showed out. You instilled the Lord in our hearts and He will never let go because of that. Thank you. I cant wait to see you again. I live to love you mom. I know your having a ball up there. Cant wait:-) Love you son, Sean B.

“ My condolences to the family for your loss. Find strength in God by turning to him in prayer. He can supply the curative comfort that is needed. (Psalm 46:1) Praying to God, along with seeking to learn and to do his expressed will, will certainly bring healing to the aching heart.

"This means everlasting life, their coming to know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ." - John 17:3.

“ Phil and Barbara Harris were indeed sorry and surprised to learn of Gwen's death.

We met Gwen through her daughter Tiffany at North Carolina Central University. Gwen was a very affectionate person. She has visited our home in Oxford, NC several times. Our family visited with Gwen, Robert and their family at their home in Rockville. Each time our families came together we shared pleasant and happy times.

Tiffany, please know that we share in your mother's loss and your time of sorrow.

We will continue to keep your family in our prayers. With deepest sympathy, we remain

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
