“ I first met Chew back in about 1980. We were connecting the Russian Embassy for Williams Enterprises. He was a good man and a good friend. I'm sorry to say I fell out of touch with him over the years. I saw him on another job in about 2010 and we caught up on old times. My deepest condolences to his family and friends.

“ Harold,

My family was blessed upon the first time meeting you. You were blunt and truthful which was OK because it came from a good place. You were undeniably true to who you were. You LOVED my Best friend with intensity as She did you. The care and Love that you provided will never be forgotten. Thank you for our encounter. We all need a BRIGHT LIGHT in desolate places.

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

Marshall-March Funeral Homes - January 03, 2017 at 11:12 AM

There is nothing I can do to take away your hurt but you have my shoulder to cry on and my loving hugs. Know that I will be here for you at any time you need me. Those special memories of Harold I will never forget and they will always bring a smile. Continue to cherish your special memories. God Bless you all.

*With Much Love,
Myra*

Our heartfelt condolences to The Chew Family. May you find peace and comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures us that our dear loved ones have a resurrection hope. His Son, Jesus Christ, even confirms this promise at John 11:25. Our prayers are with your family.
