“ Hi Ms Marshall,

*I'm so sorry that I could not be with you when your husband made his transition from earth to glory.
What a wonderful blessing it is to know that you will see him again.*

May God continue to bless and keep you; for you are a blessing to many.##imported-begin##Sandi Goins##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Marshall,
On behalf of my wife and I, we give our heartfelt condolences and a prayer of comfort and joy from our LORD and SAVIOR CHRIST JESUS, to you and your family. We too have our eldest son, Emmette III, of whom was called home to be with the LORD June 9th, 2005. He was cared for, handle and serviced by your Funeral Services. We would like to thank you, and your professionally trained staff for the excellence in this sensitive trade. Take comfort in knowing that he your husband is present with the LORD, like our son.

With Sincerity,

Mr. & Mrs. Emmette & Mae Spears Jr.

“ Mrs Marshall, allow me to take this time to express to you my deepest condolences. I too share this painful loss with you. I was one of the night nurses at The Washington Home and Hospice when Mr. Marshall stayed there for a short time and had the pleasure of meeting his acquaintance. He was a marvelous gentleman, well dressed and spunky. May God bless you and Heaven smile upon you.##imported-begin##Bertha##imported-end##

“ Dear Dr. Marshall,

I am so sorry to read about the loss of your husband. There is so much truth to the bible verse at Genesis 2:24 that emphasizes how the husband and wife become one. I am sure that you miss him. Many times people encourage us to talk to a friend when we are grieving. Although this is good advice, how much more so should we talk to Almighty God and pour our heart out to him in prayer? 1 Peter 5:6,7 says "Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; while you throw all your anxiety upon him, because he cares for you." I am always comforted by the fact that Psalm 146:9 says that Almighty God relieves the widow. This shows how much he truly cares. One way that he relieves all who are grieving is by the promise revealed by his son, Jesus Christ. At John 5:28,29, Jesus Christ said "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life..." Almighty God gave us all the hope of the resurrection or the raising up from death back to life. Dr. Marshall, please grasp and hold on to that hope. Based on Psalms 37:9, 11, and 22, Almighty God is telling us that our loved ones who have passed will be raised up to live here on the earth again. What a wonderful prospect to cling to. Again, you have my deepest sympathies.##imported-begin##A. Stepney##imported-end##

“ Dear Family of Mr. Marshall,
I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. The Bible also promises that our loved ones will live again by means of a resurrection John 5:28, 29. However, when they are resurrected they will not live in conditions that they previously lived in. The earth will eventually be transformed into a paradise with no sicknesses, war, crime etc. Please read these promises for yourself at Revelation 21:3, 4; Psalm 37:10, 11; Isaiah 2:4. May you put faith and trust in these promises because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To Mrs. Julia P. Marshall and the Marshall's Funeral Home Staff.

My prayers are with you and the staff as the Lord called one of his servants home to gain his just reward. Remember PSM 121 as it reminds us to look to the hills to get our strenght. Washington has losted a great Funeral Director, but you are still here with the servants heart to minister unto others.

God Bless

“ Those of us who elect to serve our community in the Funeral Service Industry are caring professionals. Mr. Marshall and the Marshall's Funeral Home staff are also a selected few. Mr. Marshall had a lot of pride in his dress, manners and utmost professionalism service he performed and provided for families. As a Mortician, and husband I am sure Mr. Marshall had a great career in their business and as he served, he also realized that he shall also be served as well. Our Africian-American community businesses continue to maintain high stardards of moral value and service many like Mr. Marshall foster those beliefs by opening a second Branch Funeral Homes to meet the needs of our growing population. I extend my belated heartfelt condolences to his wife, Mrs. Julia P. Marshall, his niece and the entire Marshall family and staff. May all of you continue to provide that expertise of "One High Standard of Service" for those families who continue to called upon your staff. God Speed!###imported-begin##Deacon Robert Willis Henry##imported-end##

“ My prayers go out to you Mrs. Marshall, I had no idea. God always give you what you need when you need it. He has and always will be on time. Know that the heavens are rejoicing over another life given to the FATHER, IN LOVE. I know you will miss him dearly, however, like myself and loss I hold on to the love and cherish memories that remains here in me and God's unchanging hands to make it through. Take care.

“ Mrs. Marshall and Family, may the Lord continue to comfort and sustain you during your loss by these words: Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints Psalms 116:15. Although I did not know Mr. Marshall during his life time, I certainly can relate to your loss. I hope it encourages you to know that others are praying for you.
