Harriett L. Robinson born Harriett Liddell, was born on January 6, 1947 to the late Fred & Eunice Liddell of Washington, D.C.. Harriett was the baby of three; Fred 'Freddie' Jr, and her twin brother Harrison, whom she loved to go dancing with on the weekends.

Harriett attended Eastern High School, and after graduation her love for numbers ultimately landed her a job at NIH as an accountant where she devoted 25 years of service until 2002. In her early years she enjoyed parties and cookouts with her family. She enjoyed going out of town to casinos with her cousins and attending curves with them. Once her grandkids became of age, Harriett picked up the hobbies of skating and bowling which kept her feeling "young". In her later years, she picked up the hobbies of crocheting, knitting, and crossword puzzles to keep her mind as sharp as her tongue.

Harriett was preceded in death by her beloved son William A. Creek (46) in 2015, and son-in-law Dennis Talley (56) in 2019. Though she is no longer with us in the flesh, her love will surround us forever. She leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter Karen, three grandchildren Robin (Roland), Matthew, and Bri-yanna (Kyle). Her three great grandchildren whom she always bragged about, Rayln & Jamal Sarvis, and Alaina Bathurst. She also leaves behind, her eldest brother Fred, and twin brother Harrison, favorite cousins "Sis", Donna, and Anne, god-daughter Jackie, and a host of other beloved family and friends.
