

Harry A. Lewis

May 18, 1939 - November 4, 2020

Harry Alexander Lewis, Jr. was born May 18, 1939 in Washington, DC to the late Harry Alexander Lewis, Sr. and Margaret Butler. Harry attended DC Public Schools up until Graduation from Cardoza High School which he enlisted in the US army for 2 years with an Honorable discharged. Harry worked several jobs, including a SPO Officer for the Federal Government and later retired from the Department of Corrections after 20 years.

Harry was a huge Washington Redskins Fan who also enjoyed fishing, listening to rhythm and blues and even attempted to play his guitar that was gifted to him by his wife. Harry was known for his favorite sayings like (I CAN'T DANCE SHOES IN THE SHOP), Hitting and Holding, or when you ask Harry how he is doing, he responds by saying "like nappy brown getting up eating and laying back down" LOL. Another saying was "HITTING AND STICKING LIKE POPEYES CHICKEN". Harry was a proud Member of the Masonic Corporation.

Harry was fun, loving, caring man that didn't take no mess. He loved to spend time with his family. Harry Lewis will be truly missed by many. Harry was a beloved Father of three: Anthony Lewis of New Jersey, Tracey Lewis - Clark of Maryland, and Crystal Lewis of Maryland. 1 Brother Harold Lewis of Maryland 1 sister Maxine Jones of Maryland. 1 Daughter-in-law Simone Lewis, 1 Son-in-law Raheim Clark.

Harry leaves to treasure and cherish the legacy of love and fond memories to his Wife Juliet Weiters-Lewis his Bae. Married for 10 years, they even shared the same Birthday. Harry became a Father figure to her 2 boys Anthony Weiters, and Earl Weiters as they called him Payphone Man.

“ To my cousin Sonia and the Lewis family you all have my deepest sympathy for the loss of your beloved HARRY. The last time my husband and I saw Harry was for his 80th birthday - he was so happy, we laughed and broke bread together. Harry thank YOU for loving my cousin unconditionally. You will be greatly missed. REST WELL IN PARADISE -- Steve and Joyce 🙏💔🙏❤️🙏

“ We want to share our condolences with Mr. Lewis family. When we lose our loved one in death, it is the most difficult time in our life. However there is loving comfort in God's word to throw our burdens on God and he will sustain us. No matter what we are facing God is there to help us endure. Thinking of you all.
