“ Teresa Proctor Gartrell & Family,

Our heartfelt sympathy to you in the loss of your mother and father. There is nothing that can compare to the loss of a parent, and we know your loss is compounded. We offer a prayer of deepest sympathy to you and your family. Lord, the loved ones gone from us we trust now to Your keeping. Bring them home at last to You, wake them from their sleeping. Soothe them with Your tenderness. Touch them with Your grace. Take them from this world to find a better, brighter place. Care for them like children, Lord, and let them always be safe within Your gentle heart for all eternity.

I know you loved them very much. our loved ones live on in our hearts and memories, and there is a part of them that never leaves us. You'll find your peace somehow in knowing you will meet again although you're parted now. May your faith sustain you and may the love and prayers of those who care comfort you.

*With heartfelt sympathy,
Mr. & Mrs. Walter L. Austin (Lucy)*
