

Helen E. Blue

May 25, 1941 - December 5, 2017

On December 05, 2017, Helen Elizabeth Blue, affectionately known as Aunt Liz, transitioned into eternal rest at the NMS Healthcare in Hyattsville, Maryland. Born on May 25, 1941, in Washington, DC, she was the daughter of the late Evelyn Irene Graves and John D. Wilson.

Helen and her family moved to Danville, Virginia, then later to Roxboro, North Carolina where she attended and graduated from the Person County High School. She returned to Washington, DC where she met and married the love her life, the late Malakie Blue. As a registered practical nurse (RPN), she began her nursing career working in various clinics in Washington, DC before accepting an RPN position with the Veterans Affairs Medical Center where she retired.

Helen was an excellent baker and her family and friends looked forward to eating her delicious cakes. She loved watching football and cheering on her favorite team, the Dallas Cowboys. She was a free spirit and very outgoing. Her energy and smile illuminated everywhere she went. Even during the midst of terminal illness, her positive attitude on life never wavered.

Helen had a sincere commitment and dedication to family and friends. While she never had children, Helen was a loving and supportive foster parent to her grandniece Ashanie Nicole Paylor, whom she cared for as her very own.

Through the years, she extended this same love and support to other family and friends by often opening her home as a place of refuge.

Helen is preceded in death by three siblings: Evelyn I. Smith, John H. Wilson, and Lawrence H. Wilson, and one niece: Yvonne Smith. She leaves to cherish her memory one sister, Cordie M. Paylor; one brother, Louis D. Wilson; six nieces, Gloria Paylor, Joann Paylor, Angela Paylor, Nicole Paylor, Monica Paylor, and LaShawn Paylor; three nephews, James Pearce, Roland D. Smith, Jr., and Iran Paylor; and a host of other relatives and friends.
