“ Words can not express the loss that I feel at this time. I grew up with you being a part of my life from birth to the present day. There are so many memories I have of you and Uncle Kenneth. Walking to your house as a youth just because no reason necessary. No matter how small or big an obstacle I faced you advised and supported. Some of the things I will miss the most are the cookies not just at Christmas but anytime of year, taking you to your favorite past time of shopping and of course the good home cooked meals. I learned a lot from you and I?m still working on patience. Who would have known that God would call you and Uncle Joe home within days of one another. It\\'s so ironic that you two were our biggest support ten years ago when my dad was sick/past in Dec 1996, you lovingly prepared our meals, called and visited to lend a helping hand. I\\'m just thankful to have known you, because to know my Aunt Helen was to love my Aunt Helen.

This poem may help us all through this time:

Don\\'t grieve for me, for now I\\'m free, I\\'m following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I\\'ve found that peace at the end of the day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah, yes, these things too I will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My Life\\'s been full, I savoured much, Good friends, good times, a loved one\\' touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don\\'t lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free. Author: Unknown

We love you and God Bless,
