“ I was deeply saddened when I heard about Mr. Horn's passing. He and I were neighbors when he lived on 9th Street NW. He was a very thoughtful neighbor who looked after my house when I traveled and made sure that I always had a Sunday paper. I remember when Obama became president, I could not find an inaugural paper anywhere so I called him and he dropped one at my house the next day. He was such a warm, kind and friendly man who enjoyed helping others. I remember his ready smile, stylish dress and "signature" cowboy hats. He will surely be missed. I wish God's blessing on the family at this difficult time and will keep you in my prayers. You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Cynthia Udhiri##imported-end##
