“ Words can not express how much of a void our family will have without you in it... we will miss your laugh and your advise and definitely the way you made everyone feel special. In the last few days we were not sure what was going to happen but again God knew best and granted healing with him in the kingdom. We will miss you and pray you continue to watch over us and we pray we always make you proud like you made us by leading by example....

“ We are family connected by blood and love for one another from Detroit, Maryland, Washington, DC, Virginia, North Carolina and New York. Herbert was a dedicated leader and supporter in keeping our family reunions together. He always had a big smile and a kind word for us. We will remember his warm smile, the laughs we shared, the encouraging words to our young family members and the love and kindness he showed to all of us. He loved his family and we loved him!
