“ When started out our friendship I was just 19, just came home from Viet Nam starting my Federal career at the Pentagon Carpenter as a labor. We became good friends from that point on for over 50 years. We had our kids around the same time and became one big family on and off work. Charlene and I were born on the same date and we always address each other as "TWINS". Andy I will miss you and may your soul....."REST IN PARADISE"
