“ Shalam Barak Atha- may peace and blessings be upon us all.

I am brother Mashah (Manwall) Israel, who send my deepest condolences and love to Howard's mother Jackie Russell, our family, friends, and love ones, who soul was touched by Howard's departure directly or indirectly, we must all keep in mind that Yahawah (God) timing is perfect timing and he is the best of planners and knows best for us all. Death is not an enemy to those who believe in the Messiah Yahawashi (Christ) and are serving Yahawah through reaching out to our fellow brothers and sisters giving them a hand of love, care while checking on them daily. Howard was a servant of Yahawah who check on us daily when no one else thought about us, he check on my Dad daily who recognized him as his own son.

We cannot let our past struggles define our future blessings. Howard was spiritually courageous and stay building for progress spiritually and physically with me and the Morish Science Temple of America brothers and sisters, no matter how people may view him or try to define him he never gave up on what he believes in or his spiritual values. We thank him for never giving up on himself or others and neither shall we give up on ourselves or on others by letting his spiritual encouragement continue live through us. I been with Howard since childhood, and throughout his life enduring his struggles, pain, suffering, blessings and love, I was there with him either in person or in spirit, our bond as brother were always strong. His presence represented the uniting of us Hebrews with our moabite family by the will of Yahawah. Howard brought that energy and love by accepting my past, present and future me along with my Hebrew Israelite nationality, even when others may have forgotten me, he stood firm in his support of me as his brother and something we all should continue to do. We thank Yahawah for allowing Howard to manifest to us and to ascend back to him in the highest form of Peace on earth Shalam. I come in Yahawah love and pray to keep us in Yahawah Shalam. May Howard's righteous spirit live on through us. Thank everyone for their love and support for his mother Jackie Russell and our family and friends here today, be blessed and anointed by the will of Yahawah (God).
