“ From:- Arlene and Dorrel/The White's Family-

We wish to extend our deepest condolences to the family of the Late Sister Williams. We have had fond memories of her when we were teenagers and newly saved at the GLad Tidings Open Bible Church in Spanish Town, Jam. Sis Williams you never could sit still, always busy, offering your time for any service. Also your hospitality to other people was superb. You will be missed, but you remain in the arms of Jesus.##imported-begin##Dorrel Baker & Arlene Baker##imported-end##

“ We Eric & Yvonne, wish to express our sincerest condolences to the family members and friends of Icilda Williams. Sister Williams, as she was affectionately referred to in the church community, was a wonderful saint. She always had a word of encouragement for everyone. We will surely miss her, but are assured that we will see her again, if we remain faithful to God. Family members and friends, take heart, for she is only resting and waiting for us to join her! God bless you all!##imported-begin##Eric & Yvonne Cunningham##imported-end##
