“ What a great joy it was to have such a humble and wise woman in my life. I loved sitting at her feet listening to her recollection of years gone by. She touched me in such a special way that I will always cherish.

It is doubly sweet that at the close of a well spent life, to turn one's face toward the sunset and quietly sink into the rest that knows no waking except in the presence of God. We bow submissively to the will of Him who does everything well.

Until we meet again, Aunt Ira, I know that the Angels in Heaven done signed your name.

Respectively submitted,
