

Irene Dargan

January 10, 1922 - March 13, 2019

Mrs. Irene "Rena" Glover-Dargan departed this life on March 13, 2019 at Manor Care Nursing Home. She was born to James Glover and Rachel Mae Smith in Branchville, South Carolina. She was the third child of eight children born to the couple. At an early age, she loved cooking and baking. She attended public schools in Branchville, SC.

She accepted the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at an early age at Canaan Baptist Church in Branchville, South Carolina.

She relocated to Washington, DC in 1964 and was employed as a nurse and housekeeper for a lawyer. She retired from her job after serving 30 years. She met and married the love of her life James Dargan and to that union seven children were born.

She had many hobbies and interests which included traveling, cooking and dancing with her close friends.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her son Samuel Dargan (Sharon), her daughters Dot Carter and Emma Williams (late husband Willie), grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. She was predeceased by her husband, four children, one granddaughter, three brothers, and four sisters.

“ Grandma, I've been thinking about you ever since you left this earth and I am missing you so much. I miss you're hugs, voice, and you're laugh. I miss calling you on the phone and you asking me if I was "on the job". You are the STRONGEST woman that I know. You will ALWAYS hold a special place in my ❤️. I love you so much!!! 😊

Aunt Rena ..We are celebrating your life today. It had been raining all day, which means, God is with us, and the rain of your spirit is in God's presence. Your service was spirit filled, and God turned it all around, into a restoration, and healing for the family. Yes Aunt Rena, your love, and the love of God came through! To God be the Glory! We are on our way to your burial site. Love you Aunt Rena! Say hello to Momma. <3
