Aunt Irene

Tribute from Donna, Rae and Rob

A stranger looking at her would see a petite woman with a warm personality and a loving smile. To have known her you would have a life long friend and confidant. To have loved her you would have someone to guide you through the trouble times in your life, to have loved her and be loved by her was to have a peace of heaven on earth. Until we meet again, We Love You!

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that
God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide;
And through we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our Family chain is broke,
And nothing seems the same;
But as God calls us one by one,
The Chain will link again.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Even though I never met Ms. Watkins, I can tell from her obituary that she was so well loved and respected. During your time of bereavement, may you be comforted by the wonderful hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." Yes, based on the benefits of Jesus' ransom sacrifice, we have the wonderful hope of seeing our dead loved ones again."
