“ Irwin,

I thank GOD that he blessed us with you during your time here on earth. You have been a dear friend for many years and I will always cherish that. Ever since I started working for DiData back in 1999, we became fast friends. I am really going to miss you and my sincerest thoughts, wishes and prayers go out to your family. I know you are up in heaven looking down upon us making GOD laugh all day! That's one thing I will never forget is that you could make a person laugh even when they didn't feel like it! Our epic arguments about who can beat who on the basketball court during our days at the NMF was too funny! But GOD has called you home to HIM and as we remember the life you led on earth, HE has more work for you to do for eternity. You will truly be missed and your spirit will continue to live on.##imported-begin##Michael Holmes##imported-end##

“ It was a pleasure to have known such an inspiring, ambitious, fun loving, and hearty man.

Those who got a chance to know him will testify that he was more than just a man.

He was a son, a brother, a business man, a husband, a provider, a father & a friend.

He will be missed by many & forgotten by NONE.

My prayers and condolences will remain with the St. Holder family.##imported-begin##Najmah Bass##imported-end##

“ Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. I have fond memories of Honk. I will never forget when my siblings first met him and his siblings back in the 70's. We would always tell them that we were supposed to move in the house that they were living in. May the family find inner strength during this challenging time. Honk will never be forgotten.

“ To Stacey and the family,

So sorry to hear about Irwin. You and your family have our deepest sympathy. In life you loved him dearly, in death you love him still; in your heart he'll always hold a place that no one else can fill. So when you are lonely and if you begin to feel despair, look right close to you in your heart and Irwin will be right there.

May God keep you in His care.

“ Through the years, we've shared so many conversations on the phone. Conversations about WAN connectivity, the weather in the DC area, and even the Redskins did not escape us. Irwin was always helpful and just a great guy to talk with.

He took time to help with big problems and small ones also. He was never too busy to help or to listen.

I meet him several years ago at the Thurgood Marshall Building and once again he was truly a good guy, a friend.

I will certainly miss him...RIP

“ To Stacey St. Holder:

My precious girl, dear Stacey, There is the Wisdom and Divine Love where we dwell invisibles ones and visible ones. Your husband has reached the mountaintop and as Kahlil Gibran said, now he shall begin to climb. You now need to help him with your Love to continue with his endeavor. Life is eternal and he is that eternal Life. The roads we take are infinite. It does not matter if we see them in their car, or not with our physical eyes. Roads are never straight, neither plain; there are mountains, curves and hills up and downs? For a moment his car is out of sight from your point of view? it doesn't mean that he is not there? he is just around the corner and the curve of the road is blocking him out of your sight. Be of good courage, sweet heart, God is with you always! My heart goes out to you and your family during this sad time. Blessings, Blessings! “ Dear Barbara, I am very sorry for the pain and sadness in your heart. Our sons and daughters are our bread and wine in life; if we do not have them is like sitting before an empty table? there is not more joy and our cups are running over with tears from the heart and the bread is bitter and gives us pain in our stomach? However, my friend, there is always a rainbow over our heads.

That is the symbol of the road that our loved ones have taken, ALL of them; the ones physically present and the ones out of our sight, either because they choose to go away in search of their own destiny, or because, like your son, were taken away for unknowable reasons?

Who knows? To me is because he had very important tasks to take care. He is walking over the rainbow, full of light; the same light and the same rainbow that the other children ?as well as mine and everybody else?s are walking.

With so much Love, I raise my vision up, up, and up? until I can see him, from the very soul of my heart, full of Light, walking over the rainbow. My thoughts and prayer are with you and the rest of your family. The Lord is our Shepherd, we shall not want!
