“ Please accept my sympathy during your hour of bereavement. I lost my great-aunt on Monday and I honestly tell you that this difficult time can be endured when we think about the wonderful Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out. I'm looking forward to embracing my aunt again and I know you look forward to holding Ms. Isabel again too.

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
