Beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend was called from life to eternity Friday, September 10, 2021 and now rest in the Loving Arms of Jesus.

Iva, who was affectionately known as “Ann” was born March 11, 1953 in Birmingham, Alabama to the late Catherine Louise Kelley. Ann’s Family relocated to Highland Park, Maryland in 1958 to live with Aunt Mary T. May. Ann attended Highland Park Elementary School, Mary McCloud Bethune Jr. High School and Fairmont Heights Senior High School where she took Cosmetology classes, was a Majorette and a member of the Drill Team and graduated FHS in 1971. She later obtained a degree as Computer Technician from Strayer College.

After graduating from FHS, she was employed by Kahn’s Department store and she also work a night job cleaning offices in Washington, DC. Iva was later employed by both Federal and District Governments she retired while employed with DC Government from Saint Elizabeth Hospital in 2005.

She married Herbert L. Barnes in 1978, and had three dynamic sons Von-Dell, Kelly, and Micah.

Ann enjoyed: Praising the Lord, helping others, drawing, music, dancing, singing, reading, shopping, sewing, designing jewelry and her family and friends.

Iva Barnes was baptized at Unity Baptist Church in 1981. She later became a member at From the Heart Church Ministries and attended until her health became indifferent. Ann leaves to cherish her memories of her loving and devoted Life-Mate of 50 years, Herbert L. Barnes, three (3) sons Von-Dell Barnes (Shanda daughter-in-law), Kelly Barnes and Micah Barnes, (3) grandsons Davon Dorsey, Kavon Dorsey and Von-Dell Barnes Jr. Also left to cherish her memories: Gail Cousins (sister), David Kelley (nephew), Dawn, Sylvia, Esprit, Lena (nieces), Nephews, Nieces and Great-nieces and nephews and a Great-Grandson, Jackie Hampton (sister-in-love) and beloved friends Penny Black and Lynn Blanchard.

“ Mrs. Iva Ann Barnes will be greatly missed as a kind, loving, friendly, creative, generous, dependable and caring person. She brought her joy of life wherever she went, especially to her home, church and work. I am privileged to have known her through our many years at work for Saint Elizabeths Hospital. I will miss our friendship and I will treasure the wonderful memories of the good times that we shared. May she rest in Strength and Power. I pray that all who knew Mrs. Iva Ann Barnes are comforted and blessed through this difficult time.
