“ *Hi, Aneta
I only heard on Weds whn i called the phone centre for something. Jean asked if i knew. My heart is broken, lovey. I am so sorry. I remember your beautiful Jackie hanging out w/us in the old MCT building on days she had no school and you brought her to work. We had so much fun! Do you remember? She was a breath of cheeky fresh air. I loved when she got to come visit. I felt like someone was standing on my chest and i could barely breathe when Jean told me. She is safe now and in no pain with God, Aneta. Please know my heart goes out to all of you. All my love,

“ Aneta and family,

Jackie was a very Special person to you and everyone she touched just by the stories you have told us. She was a shining star in your life and you can be so proud of how Jackie turned out. A beautiful, bright, intelligent, fun, outgoing, kind young woman ready to take on the world. She accomplished alot with her life and you Mom helped her to achieve some of those goals and dreams of hers. Be proud of yourself also Aneta, you did a wonderful job raising a beautiful young woman, your baby, Jackie who is now your guardian angel watching over you.

“ Sweet Jackie, You were everything a person could ask for in a niece. You were sweet, kind, respectful, and had the warmest smile. We are so proud that you made it to college and you were able to touch so many lives while you were there. "You had really become a little socialite" smile. I just want you to know that you are loved by our family and will be missed terribly.
