

Jamel Kason Goff

April 25, 1986 - May 2, 2018

Jamel Kason Goff the son of Coy Len Goff (deceased) and Edith Goff was born on April 25, 1986 in Washington, DC. He graduated from Crossland High School and after graduation enrolled at Columbia Southern University to study Information Technology. Jamel worked as a chef on Capitol Hill and technician trainer in ergonomics.

Jamel resided in Washington, DC with the love of his life Madeline (Lyn) Louise Palmer and three beautiful daughters Michelle Shamelia Goff (deceased), Malaya Sori Goff (age 8), Kaylen Paige Goff (age 6) and Lily Marie Goff (3). They were his number one priority.

Jamel was known to his family and friends as a gentle giant and very protective of those he loved. He was generous, fun-loving, smart and a generation ahead of his time. He was a genius with McGyver abilities! He was also a devoted Redskins football fan!

The memories of Jamel will forever be cherished by his siblings Yvette Grainger of Frederick, MD, Coy L. Goff, Jr. of Washington, DC and Shamelia E. Goff of Washington, DC; two nephews Xavier T. Grainger and Kason M. Goff; one niece Zaila G. Griffin and a host of extended family and friends.
