“ I call him pop Brown. He was a funny, talkative, caring and man, who spoke his mind. Gave wonderful advice. He love to sing those old hymns songs. We sang a few together. He loved life and his family. I just loved it when he called me BaBa. I will always treasure our time we had together. Pop Brown enjoy you new life, new body and yes you got a new name engraved on a white stone from the Lord, only you know. You will be missed, but not forgotten. Love Barbara Bradley
