“ Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal! We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family of "Cooper", at his passing. We too are family and will always remember his smile and many acts of love and kindness. When my wife (Joyce Taylor) and I were married 43 years ago, it was Cooper that walked her down the aisle at our wedding at 10th Street Bapt Church, Wash, DC. Thank you my brother for always being there for your friends and family. May God comfort his children and other loved ones with the comfort only a loving Creator can give. Be blessed family and may Cooper rest with the Angels in Heaven.

“ Our cousin will be missed! He has been a strong and consistent presence in our family over the years. Thank you for being there for us during the many family hospitalizations at the Washington Hospital Center. We appreciate your service. We feel so sad but pray that our many memories will provide comfort. Love, peace and blessings.
