“ To the Family

Even though our faith tells us we should rejoice that your loved one is with God, it is still difficult for those left behind not to feel sad and lonely. May his peace and the comfort of friends see you through this difficult time.##imported-begin##Shirley Williams & Family##imported-end##

“ To the Family,

May God comfort you in this time of sorrow. May the numerous memories continue to bring you all laughter & joy. God choose your husband, friend, son, brother & uncle to be with him. He will always have a place in everyone's heart. Aunt Jo, you did a great job raising your son. Take care. Stay strong.##imported-begin##Darlene Davis & Family##imported-end##

“ Hey Cuz,

Just want you to know that you and your family are in our prayers. Your husband was a good man and me and my family are thankful to have had the pleasure of meeting him. We enjoyed going on the trip with you all to the York's Fair last year; and thoughts of James's kindness will be forever etched in our memories and in our hearts. Please feel free to call me anytime.

Love,

Your cousin, Kim

“ Teresa:

You know that you will always be in my prayers and that you can depend on me and DeWayne anytime you need us. I love you and we will miss James. James has done so much for us, including fixing things in the house and our cars. James will truly be miss by everyone. Just keep in your heart that you are loved by me.

*Peace and Love,
your baby sister:*
