“ Hey Uncle J, it's Reds. I sure do miss u, like crazy. As I type this, I can't blieve it's been a year since you've been gone. I've had some sad days but then I remember all the good times we've had together. You were truly all about family, us getting together and just having a good time; of course you in the kitchen cooking up some good "ole" food for the sole. If it wasn't for you, I would still be riding the bus, you were my driver's ed teacher and I'm still rolling, Unc! I LOVE YOU and you will always remain my favorite Uncle, Uncle J.

Love,
Reds

“ "Merry Christmas Dad! Really, Really miss you. Was listening to some Christmas jams by the Temptations, Kurtis Blow, etc. and remembering how Christmas was when we lived in Temple Court, how you were so funny and entertaining. This is our first Christmas without your presence, but I know you are with us in Spirit. Love Ya!

“ My favorite memory of James is when I lost my mother, he found out that we were not going to have a family car for us. James quickly volunteered to be the driver and used his personal vehicle (ninety eight oldsmobile) as the family car at her funeral. I had only know him for a very short time, but I knew this was a special man. He did not have to do this for our family. James has been a very special person in my family's life for over 34 years. We will always cherish the fond memories he has left us. I sure will miss his cooking!

Love your daughter- in - law,

“ My favorite memory of James R. DeBrew ( Brew) is when we would travel on family outings, he would lead the pack to our destination. He taught us how to drive safely, especially when we would follow each other. When we reach our destination, we would set the grill up, he would say "Bubba come here, I want to show you something." "This is how you start the grill." He showed me how to cook on the grill and I have been doing it every since. He was the best teacher, because he knew exactly what he was doing. I'm going to miss him very much.

Love your son,

Bubba

“ Although we do not share your blood, you have been the love, strength and comfort in our lives for over 40 years. Mom could not have chosen a better man to share her life with. God could not have sent a better man, next to our deceased father, to be the love of our lives. You left so, so many fond memories for us to cherish for the rest of our days on earth. You said don't cry for me, but that's a hard thing not to do for such a WONDERFUL LOVING DAD and GRAND-DAD "Poppy." We love you, but God loves you more. We miss you so much, and is ever so grateful to have had a special person in our lives. Rest in peace DAD. Love you forever.

Love lives on forever in each memory and thought of those who have shared our lives and all the happiness they've brought. To James wife Sally, there is no way to lessen the sorrow of losing someone so precious to you, but please remember that others care very much and wish you strength and comfort at this sad time. Love to James wife Sally, there three children, James sisters and brothers and the rest of the family.
