“ My Uncle Richard was special to me. I could always call him up and talk about anything but we loved talking about politics going at the White House. He was a good looking sharp dressed man. He loved his cars looking cool too. I really admired him and the women at church admired him too. He married my beautiful Aunt Diane that kept his heart pure and he really loved her and she loved and adored Uncle Richard. He was a spiritual man of God who lead the Deacon Board at Zion Hill for many years until his term was done. He was loved and respected by his family and friends and church members. Uncle James Richard Hill will be missed by all who knew him. God be with him. 🙏😭🤔❤️🌹🌹🌹🌹🌹🌹

“ Diana,

My deepest condolences on the loss of your beloved husband James. I have great memories of the times I visited your lovely home and James, and your mom were watching TV at the kitchen table and you were so busy taking care of both of them, but always made time to make me feel so welcome. I would always think to myself what a wonderful child of God you are to take such great care of your family and make time to be so loving and welcoming to the guest you barely knew.

I know this must be an incredibly difficult time for you but as you know, you are not alone. God, family, your church and friends are all standing, not behind you, but BESIDE you.

With sympathy and much love.

“ Dear Diane,
I'm sure you will miss James, Charest the 45 years of good memories. Throw out any of the bad, you have a priceless gem of history. Many never achieve those many years for numerous reasons, but God has been faithful and loving as you both were to one another. I will continue to pray for your strength in the lord.
Loads of love Aunt Dollie and Anita
