“ Jim Hodges was a coach, rather than a supervisor. He was the person at the Post Office who would encourage and cheer on his crew, like a great coach instead of a boss. I loved being on his crew! He was a great person.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you Juanita & Family, at the loss of your beloved Father. I send my sincerest & deepest sympathy to you & your family. With these thoughts "God is a mender of the broken hearts of mankind, He will bind & heal your wounds.... There is a time to laugh, cry & mourn, but He will soon turn your mourning into Joy". He is not gone, but has transitioned, he will always be remembered in your heart's 💕. I send the comfort of God to you and your family, with Love & Prayers from above 🙏❤️🙏
