“ Deacon Jackson, told me to call him James, my first Sunday in his Sunday school class. We chatted many times of the good old days, the different subjects on the news, he encouraged me when I was down (depression) We talked about the goodness of God and how he has kept us. He reminded me we all have an appointment that we cannot cancel but to enjoy every minute and every person who is important in my life. Thank you James for always being there.
