

Dr. James B. Stevens, Jr., "J.B.", DDS

December 26, 1945 - February 23, 2020

James B. Stevens, Jr., DDS, "J.B.", passed away unexpectedly in his home in Mitchellville, Maryland on February 23, 2020, at the age of 74. James is survived by his mother, Aretha Holmes Fields, his wife of nearly 50 years, Betty Nash Stevens, his daughter, Kortney Marie (Jermaine) Hammonds, granddaughter, Autumn Marie of Maryland, half-brother, Etheridge Williams, of Georgia and long-time companion, Revella Baker. He is preceded in death by his father, James Benjamin Stevens, Sr.

J.B. was born on December 26, 1945, in Gordon, Georgia. He spent his youth in Quitman, Georgia, Richmond, Virginia and Washington, DC. He graduated from Roosevelt High School in Washington, DC, received his undergraduate degree in computer science from the District of Columbia Teachers College, and earned his DDS from Howard University College of Dentistry. J.B. treated patients from his downtown Silver Spring practice for over 30 years. He will be greatly missed by his family, friends, and patients. While J.B. took pride in the dental practice he built, treating generations of patients from grandparents to their grandchildren, his absolute pride and joy was his family.

A celebration of life and repast for J.B. will be held on Saturday, April 18 from 12-3PM at the West Bowie Village Hall, 13711 Annapolis Road, Bowie, Maryland 20720.
