“ Praise the Lord Sister Barbara, I send to you my prayers and condolence. I remember your daughter from the time that you and the children spent at Shiloh, I did not get the information in time to be there for the service. I and my family will continue to lift your family in prayer.

“ Michelle was truly a good and sweet person. I truly love her. She would visit my home many a day she became like a daughter. I enjoy her laughter when she visited Sean and called him brother. She had many a laugh for all of us Sean, Nia & Darryl. I will truly miss her she would call me mom. Heaven is truly gaining a great honest true person a true Angel. If there is anything you need or would like to talk please feel free to call. All my love and prayers to you and the family. She will truly be missed
